Superintendent's Report

Carl reported that the men have been busy and that the equipment is holding up well.

A culvert near the Payne residence had to be repaired.

There haven't been any problems with water backing up on the Carlson Road. Evidently Larry Brandow had someone trap the beavers on his property.

Old Business

Fire District: Supervisor Haughton will send a letter to the new Supervisor of Oppenheim explaining our plans to establish a town-wide fire district after which he and Councilman Jaikin will attend a meeting with their town officials to answer any questions they may have.

Faville Falls: The Faville family member is still interested in erecting a sign at Faville Falls. She is working with Sue Perkins on the design and will contract the board for approval when completed.

New Business

Information on the Association of Towns 2015 training was made available to the board members.

Robyn Cadwell has been appointed the Herkimer-Oneida Counties Comprehensive Planning Board. She's replacing Nathan Mack.

Supervisor Haughton explained the ever increasing problems he's having with the budget program and asked permission to get a quote from Brian Wilcox to design a new program for the town.

A Motion was made by Councilman Jaikin and was seconded by Councilman Doerrer to allow Supervisor Haughton to get a quote from Brian Wilcox on designing a new budget program for the town. Ayes All

Correspondence

A Motion was made to adjourn at 7:43 pm by Councilman Doerrer and was seconded by Councilman Snell. Ayes All

Respectfully Submitted
